Issue Number: 8

PAY TO PLAY

In order for a student to participate in the sports program there is a "Pay to Play" fee. The cost to participate in sports is $200 per athlete per sport with the chance to recoup up to $130 with various fundraising opportunities. Throughout the year, the school institutes fundraisers that range from pizza sales, bake sales, work tasks, spaghetti feeds, etc. If a student athlete participates in a fundraiser that requires time spent (working tasks), that student athlete will be credited $10 per hour. For fundraisers that require sales, the student athlete will recoup 50% of the total net profit that was sold by the individual. If there was more than one student involved in the sale, the fundraiser will be distributed evenly among those involved and given the 50% credit. All of these opportunities can lower the "Pay to Play" fee to a minimum of $70 per sport.

MEET THE BOBCATS!!

#16 Gabe Heyrman

Gabe is a freshman here at MBS and on his 4th year of playing Bobcat Soccer! He currently plays defense and would have it no other way! His advice is “work hard and you might end up on defense!” You ended with a great season this year Gabe!

#3 Skylar Mickelson

The Ladycats have welcomed Skylar to her first year as a volleyball player! She came to us this year and is in her eighth grade year at MBS! She plays “left”. As a novice herself, her advice to the next up and coming players is “Don’t stress or get nervous before or during games, just relax and have fun!” Excellent advice Skylar! Welcome to the team!
